

The Quietude

(Encuentro De Animals)

For Mr. Bill McIntosh and the Mt. San Antonio College Choirs, Walnut, CA.
From a recording by Manhattan Transfer

Paul/Jonkey
Arranged By Norm Wallen

Open Percussion Vamp

1 2 3 4 5

Women

Men

2

2

Night calls through the air,

mp

6 7 8 9 10

reach - ing for the sol - i - tude.

release D'on't

11 12 13 14

Dusk lures like a lyre,

15 16 17 18 release D on 4.

beck - on - ing the qui - et - ude.

nb

19 20 21

mf In a state of con - stant com - mo - tion, full of rage and heart -

22 23 24 3

less de - vo - tion, there's a need that burns with - in to 25 3 26 27 28

fly a - way, just fly a - way.

29 30 31 32

Soft winds kiss the land,

mp

33 34 35 36

si - lent and in grat - i - tude.

37 38 39 40

Child - ren hand in hand,

41 42 43 44

com - pre - hend the qui - e - tude.

45 46 47

mf Through a maze of fear and com-pul - sion, there's a race for pow - er and for - tune. Still a need with - in cries out to fly a - way, to fly a - way.

48 49 50

51 3 52 53 54

3

55 56 57

mp Peo - ple rush, peo - ple flee. They move so fast that they can - not see. Work all day, up all night,

58 59 60

61 62 63

they push and hide all the joy in - side. mf Like a wave that breathes

64 65 66

- in the o - cean, and the moun - tains peak with e - mo - tion,

67 68 3 69 3 70

there's a need that calls with-in to find a way, just find a way.

3 3

71 72 73 2 75

Time now to fly a - way,

f

2

76 77

take leave and cast - a - way,

78 79 80 81 2

to fly.

ff

2

83 84

The moon it guides my way.

f

85 86

Winds blow _____ to show _____ the way, _____ to 87 88 89 90

fly. _____

ff

Wood Flute 2

91 92 93 94 95

96 97 Wood Flute 1 98 99

Wood Flute 1

100 101 102 103 104

105 106 107 108

Dawn breaks day de - scends,

mp

109 110 111 112

with a calm - - - ing at - ti - tude.

113 114 115 116

Shad - ows (shad ows) fall and bend,

117 118 119 120 121

wel - come in the qui-et - ude.

9